

Walkathon - Application for Funds

Name of Applicant: Nate Homan & Sadie Kinseth

Department or Program Affiliation: Humanities Academy

Date: 5/10/16

1. Describe the project for which you would like to request Walkathon funding.

We are requesting funds to pay for a subscription to Upright magazine, a publication of the NY Times, that is used by all Humanities teachers. For the past two years we have been funded with common core money, but sadly, that money is no longer available. Upright is full of current event articles on everything from politics, to pop culture, to environmental concerns and history. It has been a useful resource for our academy and one that we would love to continue using. This year in particular, we want to order an election supplement, "The Road to the White House" for

2. How will this funding help in the pursuit of our School Site Goals? Specifically, what School Site Goal(s) will be addressed? (see attached) a simulation we will run next fall.

Our request for funding addresses NU's Site Goal #2 specifically, as it is geared toward implementing the state common core standards.

Having Upright magazine as a classroom resource will develop higher standards of literacy across curricular areas within our academy as well as foster an awareness of the current events that are shaping our world.

3. What amount of funds are you requesting? Detail how these funds will be spent, including the total cost of the project and other sources of funding that have been explored.

We are asking for a subscription of 40 copies of Upfront for the 2016-17 school year and 40 copies of the supplemental (Road to the White House) Election Issue.
Total Cost = approx $550

4. Has the project received administrative approval?

I have spoken to principal Dan Trisella about the desire to get funding for keeping Upfront in our academy.
