Student Update

Updates for Thursday:
August 20, 2020
School is Closed due to the Jones Fire
Distance Learning is NOT in Session today

Hopefully, you all received the All-Call from the District Office, Dan Frisella, Assistant Superintendent, that School is closed tomorrow, Thursday, August 20, 2020. All offices at Nevada Union High School will be closed.

Many are asking about picking up Textbooks/Chromebooks. Again, offices are closed tomorrow so we will not be handing textbooks and Chromebooks, but we will resume on Friday, August 21, 2020.

As a reminder, if your student does not have another device available to use to access the lessons online and your student still does not have a Chromebook, please make sure you come pick one up Friday so we can get you connected. Know that we will continue over the next couple of weeks to get each student the textbooks they need. You will not need these on the first couple of days of school so if you cannot make it to the school at this point know that we will continue to schedule days for distribution.

On Friday, August 21, 2020 we will again ask students and families to drive to the Wrestling Gym lot and stay in their vehicles. We will have staff directing 3 students at a time to the J207 textbook room with masks to pick up their supplies. This way we will be able to keep everyone safe, people can stay in air conditioned vehicles and we should have happier clients.

I hope everyone is safe. I will communicate again tomorrow the schedule for logging into your Zoom meeting on Friday, August 21, 2020. We will work tomorrow to update the website to reflect these changes as well.
